

MACI MILLER Bio

Take a closer look at Maci Miller...

Philadelphia's Maci Miller is a vocalist whose style and soul make her a unique find.

While in her heart she's a jazz singer, she easily handles pop, R&B, and blues...all with her own style and a lot of feeling.

In fact, it's the depth and feeling you get when she's singing that fills you up and takes you away to whatever journey she's taking you on at the moment.

Live, Maci is a force to be reckoned with...whether it's the whispery soft vocals she slithers out in an intimate setting, or the knock-you-out big band or blues sound, Maci gives her whole self to the performance. She's performed internationally in Bangkok, Thailand at The Mandarin Oriental's famous jazz club, The Bamboo Bar, and in the US at The Park Hyatt at The Bellvue, Phila, The Greenbrier, WV, The Four Seasons, Philadelphia, The PGA Masters in Augusta, Caesar's Palace, Las Vegas, Harrah's, Atlantic City, The Claridge, Atlantic City, The Capitol Hotel, Little Rock, and many other jazz rooms and high end establishments.

Ms. Miller is also quite a songwriter. Her songwriting is as unique and diverse as she is. She wrote rich 40's-esque ballads and jumping swing tunes for her first CD "A Very Good Night" and her title track "Take A Closer Look" on the new CD is a great example of the range of her writing skills.

When it comes to high energy concerts, Maci's got it in the bag! Recent concerts include: several performances with The Gulph Coast Symphony at The Barbara B. Mann Center & the Arcade Theater, both in Ft. Myers, FL, The Ocean City Pops, OC, NJ, and Wildwood's Summer Concert Series at the Lou Booth Ampitheater, Wildwood, NJ.

No stranger to cabaret, Maci regularly performs at one of the best cabaret rooms in PA, Odette's (in New Hope) and also in New York at Danny's Skylight Room, NYC.

Maci is also an actress, model, and spokesperson with many commercials, print-work, television, and film credits under her belt. You may have seen her on The Sixth Sense, Law & Order, The Cosby Show, For Richer or Poorer, Women's World Magazine, or heard her voice on radio spots.

Most of all, Maci is a dedicated performer. She loves what she does and it shows. Her 1st CD, "A Very Good Night" got rave reviews and airplay on many US and international radio stations. It also hit the SwingTop 40 list with 5 different songs in the top 10 on the popular swing web station, SwingTop40.com. Maci is currently getting regular airplay on PA's top jazz station, WJJZ, Phila.

Between her supermodel looks, vivacious personality, and amazing voice you are certain to not only want a closer look, but also another listen.
